NOTES

1. The selection is arranged language-wise and it is based on the objective of giving adequate representation to all 22 languages of the VIII Schedule of the Constitution of India.
2. For languages represented by a vast number of applicants, priority was given the following order: In-Service/Professionals → Research Scholar → Master Degree → Under Graduation.
3. Rs.500/- is to be paid by all participants at the time of reporting. This money is adjustable with one-year subscription of the Translation Today Journal.
4. A list of wait listed candidate will be released by 15 December 2023.
5. Selected candidates, if not hopeful of joining, may please inform us at the earliest so that the opportunity can be offered to the next candidate in the waiting list.
6. A social media group will be created for general instructions and for facilitating frequently asked question.
7. The candidates are required to book their onward and return journey tickets and share the information with us latest by 15 December 2023.
8. The preferred mode of communication is e-mail. Please write to us on ntmtrainingprog2016@gmail.com.
9. No query regarding Travel Allowance (TA) will be entertained at the this stage, as the TA matters are decided on the basis of performance during the programme.
10. The accommodation is modest and shared. No query will be entertained for special accommodation.
