NATIONAL TRANSLATION MISSION CENTRAL INSTITUTE OF INDIAN LANGUAGES

Editor Tariq Khan

Editorial Policy

Translation today is a biannual journal published by National Translation Mission (NTM), Central nstitute of Indian Languages (CIII.), Manasagangotri, Mysuru, A peer-reviewed journal, it proposes to contribute to and enrich the burgeoning discipline of Translation Studies by publishing research articles as well as actual translations from and into Indian languages. Translation Today will feature full-length articles about translation—and translator-related issues, equibs which throw up a problem or an analytical puzzle without necessarily providing a solution, review articles and reviews or atmaslation sate of books on translation, actual translations, Lettes to the Editor, and an Index of Translators, Contributors and Authors. It could in the future add new sections like Translators job market, Translation software market, Notes from the Classroom, and so on. The problems and puzzles arising out of translation in general, and translation from and into Indian languages in particular will receive greater attention here. However, the journal would not limit itself to dealing with issues involving Indian languages alone.

Translation Today

- · Seeks a spurt in translation activity.
- · Seeks excellence in the translated word
- · Seeks to further the frontiers of Translation Studies
- seeks to raise a strong awareness about translation, its possibilities and potentialities, its undoubted place in the history of ideas, and thus help catalyse a groundswell of wellfounded ideas about translation among people.

Contributions: Translation Today welcomes contributions of articles and other suitable material as elucidated above for its issues in the following areas:

Annotated and original translations of all literary genres, translated excepts from novels are accepted where they stand on their own, glossaries in any subject in any language-pair (Indian Languages TO Indian Languages TO Indian Languages or Indian Languages TO English or English TO Indian Languages, specialties in the translation profession: religious, technical, scientific, legal, commercial, specialtities in the interpreting profession: court, conference, medical and community, multimedia, terminology, localization, translation technology: HAMT, translation memory softwares, translation teaching softwares, papers on translation as a category of or a significant dimension of thought, pieces relating translation to society, to culture, to philosophy, to poetics, to aesthetics, to epistemology, to ontology, to movements like feminism, subalternism, to power and so n, translation universals etc., to awarenesses like civilisational space, antionalism, identity, the self, the other and so on, on translation pedagogy, translation curriculum, translation syllabus etc., ethics, status, and future of the profession, translator-related issues, translator studies: legal, copyright issues etc., squibs and discussion notes which are short pieces throwing up an interesting problem or analytical puzzle, reviews of translated texts, dictionaries and softwares, letters to the Editor.

Submission:

All submissions, contributions and queries should be addressed to:

Project Director,

National Translation Mission, Central Institute of Indian Languages,

Hunsur road, Manasagangotri, Mysuru-570 006

E-mail: projectdirector.ntm@gmail.com, cc to: ntmtranslationtoday@gmail.com

Articles submitted for consideration of the Board will have to be in English. Translation Today will consider seriously the possibility of publishing material in Indian languages, or a multilingual edition of the journal in future. There's no size limitation on articles except that they may preferably be within 40% to avoid slow downloading for the electronic version. Articles should, however, be preferably and optimally between 2000 and 3000 words in length for the print-based version. Unpublished contributions will be preferred. While submitting pieces already published elsewhere, the author must mention the fact as well as get permission to reproduce the same. Your initial submissions should be in typescriptor by e-mail, or in a three and half inch floppy disk. For electronic submissions, use Microsoft Word (6.0) (doc or. ext) format. Graphics could be in PJPEG, GIF. Photoshop or BMP format. Electronic submissions should come in two forms: a) one with the author's name, address, institutional affiliation, contact info and any major academic achievements. b) one which has no trace of the author's identity, ready to be dispatched to the peer-reviewer. All articles shall be accompanied by a 100-word abstract.

If it is the paper version two copies of the typescript must be submitted. Only the last page should include the author's name, position, affiliation and contact information (postal address, fax and telephone numbers and e-mail). The other copy could be on both sides of the page. Submissions should be double spaced with generous margins.

A colour photograph of the author(s) is needed in electronic and hardcopy form. Endnotes, where essential, shall precede bibliography at the end. Superscripted references within the text to endnotes and bibliography may be hyperlinked in the electronic version.

Contributors would get ten offprints of their contribution.

Style and conventions:

References should follow the system as exemplified in this journal. In the typescript, references should be indicated by giving the author's name and year of publication (with page references where necessary). References should be listed in full at the end of the article, in alphabetical order and without abbreviating journal title. References to more than one publication by an author in the same year should be distinguished alphabetically with small letters. For example: According to Nida (1994a, 1994b), Please don't club notes with references.

Diagrams and figures should be suitable for photographic/scanner reproduction. Drawings should be in black ink or stiff white paper. Lettering should be of draughtsman standard and large enough to remain legible where the figure requires reduction in size. Tables should be typed on separate sheets. Indicate in the text where tables should be placed.
